Alive After 5, it's a street party like no other! Tonight, September 12, 5pm Downtown Sanford

AA5 is Central Florida's largest recurring monthly street party with live music, local artists, food and beverage sampling in beautiful historic Downtown Sanford. This month's theme is Motown.

The main food will be provided by Angel's Soul Food and they will be serving BBQ chicken, rice & beans and cornbread. Magnolia Square will be featuring the sounds of Motown with a performance by "Carlene Mitchell-N-Fusion".

The streets will be featuring cars from the Motor City and the Public History Center's booth will be making pretzel "dipsticks", tin can drums and teaching everyone some "Motown" dance moves.

Date/Time: The second Thursday of each month, 5-8pm, rain or shine

Location: Downtown Sanford @ 230 East First Street

Tickets: $7.00 (includes food and beverage sampling throughout the event)

Enjoy: Great local restaurants, art galleries, gift shops, antique stores, nightlife and a variety of other unique businesses.
