You've waited all summer for it! "Jazzed in Sanford" will kick off its fourth season on Saturday, September 4th from 4 – 7 PM with the exciting sounds of The Bill Allred Classic Jazz Band. Central Florida has discovered the charm of our outdoor concerts featuring some of the hottest Jazz artists in the area performing in a beautiful brick square surrounded by the ambiance of our historic downtown. The concerts are held on the first Saturday of the month in Magnolia Square, located on 1st St in the heart of downtown Sanford. Going to a Bill Allred Classic Jazz Band set is like attending a symposium on the history of jazz. A favorite of Central Florida jazz fans, the band uses the five-horn front line for an exciting, always dynamic sound. This is jazz at its best without a doubt!

Little Fish Huge Pond is hosting a dance competition Saturday, September 4th. Winning prize is a Brazilian made bikini by Next To Nothing. Rap, hip hop and R&B artist Skitserena from St. Petersburg will perform. No Cover. The fun Begins at 9 PM. Competition at midnight.

The City of Sanford's 2010 Fall Instructional Baseball Clinic is available to boys and girls ages 7 - 12.
