1. Attempts to contact City Commission members, City Officers and City employees other than through the indicated contact person(s) during this procurement process is contrary the public interest. Therefore, due to the potential to distort, compromise and get in the way of the City's decision making process, attempts to contact, fraternize, or influence personnel indicated above may result in disqualification of the guilty party or company.
2. All questions must be directed to F William Smith, Purchasing Manager, 407.688.5028
3. All necessary forms, specifications, bid documents, answers to questions, etc. will be provided at the Mandatory Prebid Conference.
4. Upon closure and certification of the sign-in sheet, on the date of the prebid conference, the prebid conference will be thereby closed to additional bidders. Failure to be present and attend the prebid conference in a timely fashion will be resolved against the nonconforming bidder.

Respectfully,

F. William Smith, Purchasing Agent
