Sanford Police Investigating a Homicide

Sanford, FL (August 11, 2018): Sanford Police responded to 100 Sycamore Court in order to conduct a well-being check. During the course of the check, officers locate a deceased woman.

On August 10, 2018, at approximately 11:50 pm, Sanford Police Department received a call from the Lake Mary Police Department. According to the information received, Lake Mary Police made contact with a Sports Utility Vehicle (silver) on the railroad tracks. The Sports Utility Vehicle was located at Country Club Road and Lake Mary Boulevard.

During the course of the investigation, Lake Mary Police made contact with a male subject/driver of the Sports Utility Vehicle, who explained that we should conduct a well-being check on his wife. The male subject provided an address in the City of Sanford, located at 100 Sycamore Court, Sanford, Florida.

Sanford Police responded to 100 Sycamore Court, Sanford, Florida, to conduct a well-being check. Upon arrival, the officers located an unresponsive woman. The Sanford Fire Department responded to the scene to provide medical treatment. The woman was pronounced dead at the scene. The male driver/subject who was found with the Sports Utility Vehicle is being questioned by the Sanford Police Investigators.

Currently, this is an active investigation and the identities of those involved have not been released. Updates will be provided during the course of the investigation.
