The City of Sanford Creates New Economic Development Advisory Board

The City of Sanford's leadership desires to ensure the advancement of a vibrant economy to benefit its' citizens. To that end, the City Manager established the Economic Development Advisory Board (EDAB) to access expertise, facilitate creation of public private partnerships, and solicit recommendations from a variety of disciplines including but not limited to developers, architects, engineers, realtors, bankers, tourism professionals and both large and small businesses.

The EDAB will meet to discuss the City of Sanford's Economic Development Strategic Plan on July 31, 2019 at 10:00am in the Railroad Depot Conference Room, located within City Hall, 300 N. Park Ave. on the 2nd floor.

For more information contact the EDAB secretary Sonia Fonseca at 407-562-2820 or Sonia.fonseca@sanfordfl.gov.
